REFLECTION

Extraordinary things can happen if we open ourselves to the presence of a stranger on the road of life. That seems to be one of the elements in today's gospel passage from the well-known and well-loved Emmaus story. Imagine two dejected disciples (Cleopas and possibly his wife) on the road back from Jerusalem to their home in Emmaus, a few kilometres away. On their journey, they encounter the risen Jesus. At first, they fail to recognise him. Their sadness at his death has blinded them to what is happening before their very eyes. He engages them in conversation and holds up a metaphorical mirror to their experience of loss and grief. Their hearts 'burn' within them as he reveals to them the meaning of their sacred scriptures. They invite him to share a meal with them and their eyes are opened: they recognise him in the breaking of the bread. He disappears from their midst. They cannot contain the joy they have experienced in realising that Jesus is alive.

Cleopas and partner go straight back to Jerusalem to share the good news with the other disciples. Now all the assembled disciples experience powerfully the presence of Jesus in their midst. They share a meal with him. He opens their minds to understand the scriptures. Everything falls into place. The fear that has paralysed them falls away. They not only understand Jesus' death and resurrection in the light of the scriptures. They now know that they will be 'clothed with power from on high' to exercise their role as witnesses to this great mystery, and to preach forgiveness to all peoples 'beginning from Jerusalem'.

Luke will open the second volume of his two volume work with the story of Jesus sending the disciples to be his witnesses to the ends of the earth. We who re-member these events in every Eucharistic celebration are both the recipients and the bearers of that message. If we allow our hearts to 'burn' within us, we too may recognise the Risen One in our gatherings and become his witnesses to the ends of the earth.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

MY MUM

A Pearl of Great Price

Mother is the potter, we the clay
Molding our lives in a Christian way
The Rights from Wrongs of life she's taught us
Showing the tender love of Jesus
Going beyond her call of duty
She's a gem of rare beauty
A nurse, cook, and a whole lot more
A shining example to adore
Her prayers, tears, laughter, and smiles
Make unpleasant things seem worthwhile
Valued more than silver and gold
A beautiful gem to behold
Like a pearl, she's a jewel rare
Her love shining beyond compare
A treasure of Gods' creation
Deserving of our adoration
A woman of love and sacrifice
A gem of gems; A PEARL OF GREAT PRICE.

*Hail Mary
Hail Mary, full of grace
The Lord is with you.
Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus
Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death
Amen*
